

FRANK DITURI

www.frankdituri.com

Frank Dituri divides his time between Italy and New York. He is a photo artist who likes to transform the everyday, the recognizable and the obvious into images that border on the surreal. His play on rich black and white tonalities and composition heighten the overall mystery of his often, somber images and give his work a unique esthetic effect and individual style.

Frank Dituri's artwork is continuously exhibited in the United States, Europe and Asia. He has had numerous books of his images published and has been reviewed by many important publications. His photographs can be found in many private and public collections. Mr. Dituri has been teaching for over thirty-seven years. He is currently in the art departments at C.W. Post, Long Island University, Libera Accademia di Belle Arti in Florence, Italy and is also a teaching artist for the LTA/Guggenheim Museum Program.
